15 Candidates for City Council File Election Papers

MANAGERIAL PLAN BRINGS OUT LONG LIST OF ASPIRANTS

SEVEN GETTING HIGHEST NUMBER OF VOTES TO WIN SEATS. FILING AT END Fifth Ward Has No Candidate for School Board on Ticket.

With 15 candidates in the field for councilman under the city manager form of government, Janesville's regular election of Tuesday, April 3, gives promise of bringing out a record vote.

The four-day period for filing nomination papers came to a close, Thursday night, with no last-minute surprise entries in the council race. Men now serving on the city council under the old plan are in the majority on the councilman-at-large ticket, nine of them having filed papers. Of the remaining six, there is one woman, and none of these has ever held an aldermanic post.

The five present aldermen who are not in the race are: W. W. Menzies, Second ward; J. J. Sheridan and Thomas Spohn, Fourth; E. P. Kelly, Fifth; and Maurice L. Wehrlich, Sixth.

How Ticket Looks

The final ballot for councilmen will look something like this: City Clerk E. J. Sartell says:

1. J. Cronin, 425 Eastern avenue.

2. J. Dullin, 203 Center avenue.

George H. Esser, 323 Peace court.

Glenn L. Gardner, 1027 Wheeler street.

3. R. C. Gardner, 610 South Jackson street.

4. J. Gibbons, 20 Clarence street.

John C. Harlow, 404 North Washington street.

5. L. E. Horn, 620 North Washington street.

William McCue, 315 South Locust street.

George A. Jacobs, 321 South Second street.

6. J. Jensen, 527 Court street.

Emma H. Manning, 212 North Washington street.

Ensign M. Ransom, 217 South East street.

George J. Sonnett, 11 North East street.

Of the above 15, the following nine are now serving as aldermen under the councilman plan: Cronin, Dullin, Esser, Gardner, Gibbons, Harlow, Jensen, Horn, and Ransom.

Eight of the candidates live on the east side of the city.

KEELEYS ARE BADLY HURT IN CHICAGO

Mr. and Mrs. William Keely, Myers hotel, were severely injured last Friday in Chicago, when upon leaving a Lake Shore bus, they were struck by a taxi and knocked unconscious. Mr. Keely suffered a fractured rib and a general shaking-up. Mr. Keely's head and back were injured, and three ribs broken.

They were taken to Columbus hospital where Mr. Keely had 20 stitches taken in his head and face. They are resting more easily now.

William Keely, Jr., New York City, was hurt, Thursday night, having come to Chicago on business. While here, he was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Harris, 118 Sinclair street. He will leave for New York, Saturday night.

3 KILLED IN WELL CAVEIN

[By Associated Press.] Snyder, Okla.—Three men were killed and one was injured when the walls of a well they were sinking caved in early Friday and buried them under five feet of dirt. The men were 20 feet down when the accident occurred and the bodies have not been recovered.

GIRL WIFE DIVORCES BANKER'S SON

Mrs. Frederick H. Prince, Jr.

Boston — "It's a long time that has no turning."

Fredrick Prince, Jr., son of a millionaire banker here, realizes that now, for years, luck smiled on the impetuous young man and his every undertaking. Heretofore his life has been a charmed life as it were. In polo, yachting, motor racing and World war sky fighting luck smiled on him.

Bank in Washington on a furlough he met Miss Elizabeth Harding, daughter of W. P. G. Harding, former governor of the federal reserve board, and a debbie than whom there was none fairer in the brilliant capital.

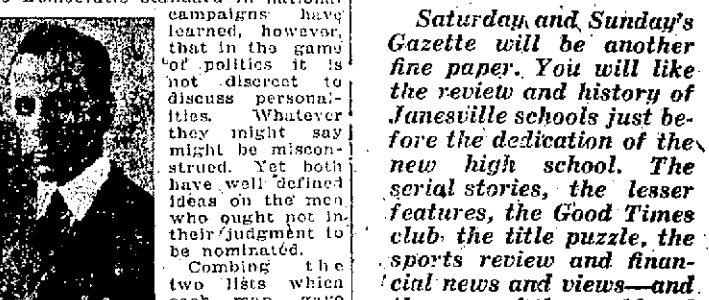

DAVIS PROMINENT IN DEMOCRATIC LIST FOR '24 CAMPAIGN

By DAVID LAWRENCE.

Copyright, 1923, Janesville Daily Gazette.

Miami, Fla.—Now that Attorney General Daugherty has nominated President Harding as the next Republican candidate for the presidency, the writer besought William Jennings Bryan and James M. Cox to make a newspaper nomination on the Democratic ticket.

Both these men who have carried the Democratic standard in national campaigns have learned, however, that in the game of politics it is not discreet to discuss personal titles. Whatever they might say might be misconstrued. Yet both have well defined ideas on the men who ought not to be nominated.

Combining the two lists which each man gave the writer, the catalogue of candidates for the Democratic nomination would seem to include the following: Samuel Ralston, governor of Indiana; John W. Davis of West Virginia, former ambassador to Great Britain and former solicitor general, under the Wilson administration; William Gibbs McAdoo, former secretary of the treasury and director general of railroads; Senator Oscar W. Underwood of Alabama; Governor "Al" (Continued on Page 9)

BLAINE TAX BILL TO FACE ATTACK UNLESS DRASTIC

SEVERSON AND DAHL TO DEMAND THEIR OWN IDEAS. READY IN WEEK Governor Promises Comprehensive Measure on Tax Readjustment.

[By Associated Press.] Madison.—With the first break among the La Follette Progressive Republican members of the legislature and Governor Blaine temporarily smoothed over, attention is now being turned to the Governor's tax bill which he has promised to have completed for the members before they adjourn next Thursday.

This measure, Governor Blaine intends, shall supplant the Dahl general income tax bill and the Severson income surtax bill, as well as all measures affecting the personal property tax, the income tax, and the tax commission appropriation bill. According to the governor, it will meet objections of various classes of citizens and of industrial interests. To the general tax bills already introduced.

Speaker John L. Dahl and the group of assemblymen he represents, are now awaiting the governor's measure, prepared to attack it providing certain drastic provisions are (Continued on page 5)

BISHOP TUTTLE IS NEAR DEATH

[By Associated Press.] St. Louis.—The Right Rev. Daniel S. Tuttle, presiding bishop of the Episcopal church in the United States, who is ill with grippe, was in a state of coma Friday, having suffered a relapse, according to attending physicians. The condition of the prelate, who is 56 years old, has grown worse steadily in the last 24 hours, it was said.

Planes May Hunt Renegade Indians

[By Associated Press.] Salt Lake City.—Word was received here this morning to the effect that a party of five renegade Indians was seen Thursday between the renegade Plutas and a white posse near Wahatch, southeastern part of the state, one Indian was killed and five were captured.

[By Associated Press.] San Francisco.—Five army airplanes were held at Crissy Field here Friday morning, ready to depart for Utah to hunt down renegade Indians who have been causing trouble in the southeastern part of the state. A request for planes was received at Ninth area camp in a dispatch Thursday from Governor Mahony of Utah, and referred to Washington.

CONFIRM FORD DEAL IN LAND

[By Associated Press.] Detroit.—Official confirmation Friday at the offices of Henry Ford at Dearborn that the automobile manufacturer had purchased 120,000 acres of undeveloped coal land in Kentucky, was coupled with the statement that Mr. Ford intended to solve the country's coal problem "by using every piece of coal twice."

KIN DISPUTE ADOPTION

New York.—Brothers and sisters of the late Peter Cooper Hewitt, inventor, Friday submitted to the appellate division of the supreme court a petition questioning the legal status of his adopted daughter, Ann Cooper Hewitt, who was bequeathed, with Mrs. Hewitt, an equal share in his residuary estate.

Famous Old Battleship Sunk by Fleet Gunfire as Navy Pays Tribute

[By Associated Press.] Abroad U. S. S. Maryland, Panama Bay. (By Radio to the Ap)—Amid strains of The Star Spangled Banner and the firing of national salutes, the old battleship Iowa sank here late Thursday after a shelling by the superdreadnought Mississippi's 14 inch shells. The battered hull tumbled slowly over on its side and slid beneath the waves.

Secretary Denby, members of the congressional party, naval officers and observing ships companies stood at attention in silent tribute to the once gallant ship that won fame in the destruction of Cervera's fleet at Santiago.

With this dramatic climax, the winter maneuvers of the United States fleet ended. The Iowa sank within 17 minutes after the superdreadnought opened up with seven-inch shells from a range of approximately nine miles. Nine five-gun salutes were fired. The first went wide but the second carried the Iowa's death blow, one shell hitting at the water line, smashing through the thick armor and exploding inside. At least five other direct hits were scored, hastening the end.

Before using service shells, the Mississippi fired 120 rounds of special shells. Salvo after salvo struck the hull, carrying away the forward smokestack, killing ventilators and the superstructure and tearing nearly a dozen holes in the hull from stem to stern.

Liar, Is Charge; Deputies in Riot

[By Associated Press.] Paris.—Premier Poincare, angered by communist insinuations that he was controlled by the Deputy Leon Daudet, the socialist leader, started a scene of wild disorder when, in an session of the chamber Friday, he called communist Deputy Andrieux an "abominable scoundrel."

The chamber immediately went wild, while deputies hammered their desks and the ushers ran about trying to restore order. The presiding officer vainly rang his bell for a quarter of an hour to get a hearing and then the chamber down.

"That man," shouted M. Poincare, pointing at Deputy Berthoin, "dared to say he had against me and mine abominable evidence which I feared would be published."

"He lied when he said it," the premier angrily ejaculated and the deputies, most of whom had not heard M. Berthoin's accusation jumped to their feet. All of them with the exception of the communists and a few of the radicals, cheering Poincare madly.

MISSING MAN HAS FAMILY IN NORWAY

Sister in Edgerton Only Relative of Arneson in United States.

With the theory now well established that the man who leaped off the high railroad bridge to his death in Rock river here early Wednesday was Carl Arneson, section hand and Chief Charles Newman continued Friday, to obtain further information in regard to the man.

Miss A. Williams, Edgerton, a niece of Arneson, who called on the Rock Thursday afternoon, it was learned that her mother in Edgerton is a sister of Arneson and the only immediate relative living in this country. She informed police that Arneson had advanced and his family in Norway, from which country Arneson emigrated many years ago.

Arneson had not seen his relatives in Edgerton for nearly three years, the chief learned, and they know little of his life during that time nor can they offer any motive for his suicide other than the ill-health which advanced and not the fact.

Chief Newman is still holding the personal possessions of Arneson and will continue to do so until his body is recovered. Due to the height of the water, the body was not found and the ice jam, no attempt is being made to search for the body now. It may be a week before it is possible to start dragging. There are some who believe the body will never be recovered about the Fourth avenue dam, the prediction being made that it will wash over it and may go over the Monterey dam also.

Arneson worked for the Northwestern railroad and not the St. Paul as was first thought, Chief Newman said, Friday.

[By Associated Press.] Madison.—Resolutions referring to the war record of U. S. Senator Robert M. La Follette were finally adopted in the Wisconsin legislature Thursday night, with adoption by the senate of the minor resolution reaffirming faith in the commanding leadership of the senator. Wisconsin senator and scoring those who attacked him during the World war.

This measure, adopted 15 to 8 in the upper house, had gone through the assembly in the morning by a vote of 7 to 13.

Senator John Cushman, Democrat, made an extended defense of the war stand of Senator La Follette in urging adoption of the resolution. For (Continued on Page 8.)

Fear Many Dead in Big Iowa Floods

[By Associated Press.] Sioux City, Ia.—Held by an ice gorge, five miles long, formed at Brimley, Iowa, south of here, spring flood waters of the Missouri river Friday threatened to sweep through parts of this city unless the jam is broken.

After the backed-up water that continued to rise while efforts were made to break up the gorge by dynamiting, has caused one death, Severson, a person several reported drowned and hundreds of head of livestock, implements and dwellings were carried away.

The property damage was estimated in excess of $100,000.

CHANCELLOR CLEARS UP GERMAN STAND IN LONG SPEECH. BACK RESISTANCE Berlin Grants Fund to Syndicate to Aid in Opposition, Paris Charges.

[By Associated Press.] Paris.—The French troops in the Ruhr will be reinforced by 20,000 men within a few days, War Minister Maginot announced Friday in the chamber of deputies.

[By Associated Press.] Munich.—Unconditional evacuation of the Ruhr is designated by Chancellor Cuno as the fundamental promise from which any discussion aimed to end the present conflict must proceed.

In a long speech Thursday night, the chancellor reiterated the government's position, asserting any discussion regarding the evacuation of the Ruhr must be based on the basis of unconditional evacuation of the invaded territory.

So long as the regime of lawlessness was not definitely abandoned, fulfillment of the treaty obligations was unthinkable, he said.

RED DEFENSE IN ATTACK ON U. S. OPERATIVE

[By Associated Press.] St. Joseph, Mo.—William Z. Foster, defense attorney for the Communist Party, Thursday night, in an attack on the reputation and credibility of "S. J.," the government agent who attended the convention as a delegate.

Depositions taken by Frank P. Walsh, attorney for Foster, at Philadelphia and Canton, N. J., produced in an effort to show that the department of justice agent, whose real name is Francis Morrow, had a bad reputation for truth and honesty, and that, as an agent provocateur, he had attempted to stir up riots at socialist street meetings.

In the absence of the jury, the state opposed introduction of the depositions and Judge Charles White partially sustained the prosecution by ruling out large sections.

OLD SCHOOL IS PROPOSED AS MEMORIAL

Turning over the old high school building on South High street to military organizations and women's clubs, a plan now being considered by the city of Janesville, is the plan of a memorial committee representing the women's clubs, schools, cavalry tank corps, Company "M," American legion and legion women's auxiliary. The local military companies are now taking up an ultimatum with the state adjutant general to get an opinion and to learn if the state would aid financially in the upkeep of the building in lieu of payment of rent as the military units now are compelled to do at their present armories. If the plan goes through the gymnasium of the school building would be used for an auditorium and drill floor. Frank O. Holt is chairman of the committee.

DENIES MIXUP WITH ACTOR

[By Associated Press.] New York.—Official denial that Miss Stella Larrimore, 19 year old actress and sister of Francis Larrimore, Broadway star, was guilty of intimate relations with Lou Tellegen, was made Friday by her counsel, at a hearing in the divorce suit brought against her actor by Geraldine Farrar, former prima donna of the Metropolitan Opera company.

Lewis M. Brodsky, counsel for the young girl, obtained from Referee Albion an adjournment of one week in order that he might peruse the record pertaining to the alleged courtship of "Miss L." by Tellegen and produce his client at an open hearing to make public denial of the charges in which her name appeared.

RESIGNATION IS ACCEPTED

[By Associated Press.] Madison.—The resignation of Senator George Staadenmeyer, as chairman of the senate highway committee, was accepted by the upper house Friday. Senator John E. Nashman, Democrat, was named chairman in his stead on acceptance of a committee on committees report.

SHORTSGIVEN $100 PRICE

[By Associated Press.] Memphis, Tenn.—Clarence Saunders, president of the big Siggis store, the largest day and night store with New York traders who sold stock of the corporation "short" on the basis of $100 a share.

Mr. Saunders made public the following telegram addressed to the New York Stock Exchange:

"To avoid lawsuits with various brokerage houses I propose for full settlement of all accounts of class A common stock, piggy Siggis stock, that I will furnish this stock on an application to the National Bank of Commerce of New York and upon payment of $100 a share."

Mr. Saunders told the Associated Press his offer would apply also to those who previously had tendered settlement at a higher figure.

NEW CREDIT LAWS PRIZES OFFERED TO AID "CO-OPS" FOR "F. B." ESSAY

Direct Advances Can be Made to Co-Operative Marketing Associations.

Twelve million dollars is ready to be turned over by the U. S. treasury to the 12 intermediate credit banks of the federal farm loan board immediately the charters are issued. The $60,000,000 capital authorized by the new law for the banks has been automatically accredited to the farm loan board by the treasury, according to Secretary of the Treasury A. W. Mellon.

The federal farm loan board has completed the regulations which will serve as the guide for the system's operations in aid of the farmer. Temporarily, at least, the board plans to loan funds under the new law to a basis of nine months maturity. Judge Charles E. Lohdell, executive head of the farm loan board, is quoted as follows:

"It is the ambition of those charged with the administration of the new law to render maximum service, but elemental safety must be the first consideration. Banks and co-operative associations desiring to use the service and so it developed will make their best contribution by offering nothing but perfectly good paper.

Direct Loans to Co-Op.—"Direct loans can be made to individuals. Direct advances may be made to co-operative marketing associations or livestock associations secured by warehouse receipts for stored agricultural products or by chattel mortgages on livestock.

"No such loan may exceed 75 per cent of the market value of the agricultural product or livestock. Loans may be rediscouted for national and state banks, savings banks, trust companies, agricultural credit corporations and incorporated livestock loan companies.

"No paper can be rediscouted upon which the borrower has been charged a rate of more than 1 1/2 per cent in excess of the discount rate of the intermediate credit bank of the district.

"In making advances on warehouse receipts, the credit bank can accept only receipts from bonded government warehouses or satisfactorily bonded warehouses operating under satisfactory state supervision and regulation. This rule is intended to broaden interest and greater activity in the development of warehouse facilities and proper regulation.

Will Promote Co-Operation.—"The facilities which the banks will be able to afford to co-operative marketing concerns should lead to a greater development of such enterprises.

"Available funds will be available for loans to facilitate original marketing but none to support speculative holding of farm products.

"Loans will be made for a longer period than nine months, unless the system is thoroughly tried out. Upon livestock paper, satisfactory assurance of renewal will be given in proper cases but only in aggregate amounts equal to the bank's capital, and then the subject of the mortgage must submit to reinspection and a satisfactory condition of security provided."

34,000 CATTLE SOLD BY BADGER FARMERS

Wisconsin dairyman shipped to several foreign countries and to every state in the union, except Delaware and the three upper states of New England, over 34,000 head of cattle in 1922, double the number of the year before. This market depended, as the buyers said, upon three things:

1. They wanted high production animals.
2. They wanted only healthy animals.
3. They could find here a large selection from which to choose.

Important as it is to keep our breeding stock healthy from the standpoint of its influence on our export trade, it is far more important that we clean up our herds for our own sake, economic as well as to eliminate the danger of disease dissemination.—H. L. Russell, in Hards Dairyman.

JAPAN TO BE GOOD MARKET FOR STOCK

Japan will be in the market for our best sheep, horses, cattle, hogs, poultry, and even giant bullfrogs. This is the statement of W. W. Bach, following a visit of a livestock commission from Japan, again in this country to buy stock. On the last trip the commission purchased considerable sheep in Rock county. American authorities declare it is but a matter of a short time until the Japanese will expend at least $1,000,000 a year for American livestock.

Now, a Quick Quaker Oats

Cooks in 3 to 5 minutes
The quickest cooking oats in the world

Now your grocer has Quaker Oats in two styles. One the kind you have always known—the other is Quick Quaker.

Quick Quaker cooks in from 3 to 5 minutes. And it cooks to perfection. So it is almost like a ready-cooked dish.

No other oat flakes on the market cook anywhere near so quickly.

The two styles are identical in quality and flavor. Both are flaked from the finest grains only—just the rich, plump, flaky oats. A bushel of choice oats yields but ten pounds of these delicious flakes.

But in Quick Quaker the oats are cut before flaking. They are rolled very thin and partly cooked. So the flakes are smaller and thinner—that is all. And those small, thin flakes cook quickly.

Ask for Quick Quaker if you want this style. Your grocer has both. But always get Quaker Oats for their delightful flavor.

August Fink, 32, died this week at his home in Concord following an attack of bronchial pneumonia. He is survived by 10 children, among them Mrs. Emil D. Nitscher, this city.

MAKES BIG CHANGES

IN MYERS HOTEL

R. L. Baumgardner, who purchased the Myers hotel in February, is redecorating the lobby, halls and rooms at a cost of about $3,000. New carpets are being laid where necessary. The desk in the lobby has been changed from the south to the north side and now adds the office. All work in the lobby is being done in light color, the ceiling in ivory and the walls in buff. The work probably will be completed about April 15.

Joe Theobald, former bus driver for the hotel, was employed Thursday as a janitor.

UNION TOWNSHIP

CONDUCTS CAUCUS

The Union town caucus was held this week and the following nominated for election, April 3: Charles Thomas and Wade Rootworth, supervisors; H. S. Spencer, town clerk; H. Campbell, treasurer; W. A. Roubenau and E. L. Ross, assessors; Sherman Hubbard, justice of the peace; and Matt Farrell and W. E. Reese, constables.

SUGAR STILL TOO HIGH, SAY GROCERS

Government Investigation May Reduce High Price Here.

The national sugar trouble being investigated by government authorities has had its effect here in the last two or three weeks and the price is still said to be far too high. According to the story of these attacking holders of sugar in warehouses, these men about three weeks ago, when the sudden jump occurred, decided to hold out on the commodity until the price was higher and then to let it out in great quantities. This they did with great success and made millions, it is alleged. They were wise in not letting out to much, and while the price dropped a little, and the commodity seems to be less scarce, the price, ranging around 3 1/2 and 4 cents in this city.

Much publicity has been given to the move to have sugar producers in Cuba and this country reach an agreement to produce less,

and thus could make a fair living by the increased supply. The result, through this publicity

it was disclosed that last year's crop was the largest in many years and this is one of the reasons that has made the present high price seem unreasonable, and has brought government attention.

Buy only what sugar is absolutely necessary, say government officials in advice on how to beat the swindlers at their own game.

Storm Day Produce

The storm which occurred again the first of this week continue the paucity of green-stuffs due at this time of the year. The delay in train service has delayed the arrival of shippable and only a few shipments of the newest things in the market, much from Florida, have been received here.

Potatoes are bringing 25 cents per pound and pineapples the same price apiece. Strawberries have dropped a little in price and can be obtained at some stores now for 22 cents per pint. The price varies, however, and housewives must not expect to find this luxury fruit at all stores for this price. They come from Florida and are the latest in the market, especially the out-of-season stuffs,

are displaying green peas, wax beans, mushrooms and asparagus. The prices at these that vary considerably. These commodities furnish a pleasant change for late winter for those who have a taste for spring.

Spinach is also seen at reasonable prices.

In the line of other new presentations come "radishes" for 10 cents a bunch, green onions for the same price; carrots for possibly a little less; and cauliflower for anywhere from 12 to 16 cents each, at its best now.

Few Prices Change

Old prices prevail on oranges, lemons and grapefruit, all stands up well against a full stock of such things as celery, bananas, apples, lettuce, and so on.

Moose Lay More Plans for Week's Bazaar at Rink

The Moose lodge at its regular meeting Thursday night elected the following chairmen for the different committees to promote the Moose bazaar at Coliseum rink, Mar. 31-Apr. 1: C. J. Dietz, general chairman; E. C. Baumgardner, chairman of financial committee; William Allen, chairman of dancing committee; and David Reese, chairman of advertising and publicity.

The Ladies Auxiliary of the Moose lodge is cooperating in plans for the bazaar. They will dress as cow girls and have charge of stands and different side shows. The Minneapolis bazaar company, which the Moose have gotten to come here, is said to be one of the most fully equipped companies on the road.

There will be no vulgarly in any of the shows, the Moose declare.

The following orchestras will play during the bazaar: Lakota, Hatch,

Jack Ford, MacFarland, and Friday

Taylor's.

Tickets were put on sale Friday morning and may be obtained from any member of the Moose lodge.

The show starts Saturday night,

March 31, and continues until Saturday night, April 7. Monday night all

Gazette readers will be entertained.

There will be "crooked" gambling houses, miniature Chinatown and dance halls. Everything will be in the form of a western frontier town

50 years ago.

HOLD HEARING ON FARM TRANSACTION

Investigate Trade of Insane Man's Walworth County Farm.

Testimony regarding a real estate transaction whereby a Walworth county farm belonging to Newton Taylor, now on commitment to the Rock county insane asylum, traded for 150 acre tract of land in Manitoba, Canada, owned by Fred J. Bellhaz, of Janesville, was taken at the Court House Friday morning before Commissioner Arthur L. Church, Milwaukee, of the Wisconsin Real Estate Board.

Complaint against Thomas F. Nelson and Patrick Meely, Janesville real estate agents, as a result of the transaction was made by David Taylor, brother of Newton Taylor, whose guardian is Fred L. Clemons, Janesville.

Testifying during the morning were P. F. Bellhaz, Newton Taylor, A. R. Batterman and C. Thayer, the latter two men of Pulaski.

Several times interrupting the questioning of Attorney Batterman, the real estate board, with "protests" against questions as not being relative to the case, Mr. Bellhaz stated that although Mr. Nelson brought him and Patrick Meely, brother of Newton Taylor together, the real estate man did not complete the deal as this was done by Taylor and Bellhaz, the former objecting to Nelson entering into the deal. Mr. Bellhaz testified that he gave Nelson $200 when the deal was closed but stated that he had no agreement as to a commission with the Janesville real estate man.

It was brought out that a trust deed of the land had been signed by Newton Taylor to his brother, David Taylor, and that the latter had said that at the time he didn't know it was a trust deed.

Mr. Bellhaz said the Canadian land had cost him a total of $4,050. In trading the land for the Walworth county farm, he took the property with an encumbrance of a $500 mortgage and paid back the balance. A tax certificate showing the Canadian land was valued at $500 for taxation purposes the last year was introduced by Attorney Batterman.

Mr. Bellhaz claimed he had not at anytime employed Nelson as his agent.

The real estate men testified the value of the Walworth county land for a person who would improve it was between $6,500 and $7,000, but worth considerably less if a person did not intend to improve it as this was necessary to assure good crops being grown.

The hearing was on removal of the license of Mr. Nelson. Mr. Meely testified that he was taken from William Altopolsky, who has asked that his license be renewed.

7 MORE WAREHOUSES APPLY FOR BONDING
Madison.—According to a statement issued by the Department of Markets, seven additional tobacco warehouses made application for bonding under the United States warehouse act. This will bring the number in this state bonded under this act to 14. The additional warehouses and those already bonded will give the Northern Wisconsin Tobacco Pool the necessary storage space to handle any surplus portion of this year's tobacco crop controlled by the pool.

STYLE SHOW IS GIVEN BY J. H. S. GIRL RESERVES

Junior high school girls were excused from classes at 11:30 Friday morning to attend a "style show" presented in the auditorium by members of the Girl Reserves.

The "show" opened with a recitation, "If for Girls" by Virginia Jones. Bernice Haine took the part of the proprietor of a ladies' furnishing shop. Grace Drummond was the saleslady. The prospective customers were Barbara Muggleton and Jean Granger. Mannequins were as follows: sweaters and skirts, Jeanette Granger; Emily Shuman; Jeanette Taylor and Evelyn Heid; slaters, Alice Gilbertson; knicker costumes, Eva Sarasy and Virginia Earle; spring coat, Curran Pedwell; gingham, Margaret Kille; necktie, Margaret Martell; Martell; Dykeman and Marion Antisold; party dresses, Dorothy Caldwell; Frances Barker; Ruth Bell and Marie McManis. Marjorie Dillon gave a toe dance and Jean Brigham gave the "dance of a rose". The show reached an effective climax when Jessie McFarlane, adorned in a white midy suit with blue tie, led a group of Girl Reserves in, after which all sang an appropriate song. Miss John played the piano accompaniment. The girls were loaned by J. H. S. Postwick & Sons and The Golden Eagle.

EXPERT TESTIMONY IN MAGNUSON CASE

Wood of Kind Found in Bomb Discovered in Farmer's Workshop, Claim.

Wisconsin Rapids.—All loose strings of the vast circumstantial net which the state has been throwing out in an effort to gather all alleged collateral evidence of John Magnuson, charged with the death of Mrs. James R. Chapman, who was instantly killed on opening the "bullet" package, were expected to be tightly woven together at Friday's session of circuit court, with the calling of several handwriting experts, phonists and metatopographers.

According to state's attorneys, these witnesses will prove that the findings, T. M. D. caps, and wood alleged to have been found in the workshop of the defendant are exactly of the manufacture found in the "death bomb".

Prof. Arthur Kohler of the University of Wisconsin, late Thursday contributed the most damaging evidence against the farmer so far when he testified to having found white elm, the material of which the state alleges the bomb was constructed, in Magnuson's workshop.

ASSEMBLY VOTES IN STANDING BARS

Mark Bill Affecting Soft Drink Saloons Passed by Lower House.

[By Associated Press.]
Madison.—The return of standing bars to Wisconsin saloons dispensing soft-drinks was favored by the assembly Friday by engrossment of the Mark bill removing restrictions against maintenance of bars. An amendment to the bill, leaving the state regulation of saloons, blinds and stalls within the Severn prohibition enforcement statute, was adopted, 58 to 27. With this restricting amendment attached the bill was sent to engrossment, 56 to 38, after indefinite postponement when refused, 52 to 32.

While voting against the return of bars, the dyes in the legislature explained that they attacked "importance to the measure."

WHITEWATER

MISS ALICE MAISH, Phone 232-11.

Whitewater.—The annual spring concert of the normal school will be given at 8 p. m. Friday in the gymnasium. The Glee club, the Trybe Ciel and the Girls' quartet, assisted by Miss Phena Baker from the normal school of music, Milwaukee, will furnish the program, consisting of two cantatas and solo numbers. The Glee club interprets "Love from the Sign of Eric, the Red," and the Trybe Ciel "The Garden of Flowers." The quartet, composed of the Misses Adams, Loan, Persons and Brecht, are always enjoyed, and Miss Phena Baker's contralto voice will be welcomed again by a Whitewater audience. The head of the music department, Miss Lucy Baker, considers this will be the most attractive concert ever presented under her direction. Much hard work, for months, has been put into the rehearsals.

The Young Women's Auxiliary, Misses A. E. Hanson and H. G. Anderson, hosted a mat at the Hansen home to listen to an account of Mrs. D. Bentley's recent trip to Hawaii.

GUERNSEY ASSN ELECTS OFFICERS

St. Croix County Man Named
President to Succeed
Dr. Munn.

Lloyd Rundell, Roberts, St. Croix county, was elected president of the Wisconsin Guernsey breeders' association meeting in Madison, succeeding Dr. Wayne A. Munn, Janesville. John H. Williams, Waukesha, was named vice-president, and H. A. Griswold, West Salem, secretary and treasurer.

The meeting was held Wednesday night in the Park hotel with the ten-state livestock convention, Thursday. Many Rock county breeders attended the meeting and sale. The good type Guernseys sold well and the top was on a seven-month-old bull calf owned by E. J. Ruppel, Fond du Lac, named Corium Raider's Durand, selling for $540. The calf was bred at the farm of President Rundell. The top on the females was $310.

CITY NEWS BRIEFS

Sure on Note—M. Holbrook has started action in municipal court here through his attorney, O. A. Gerreich, to collect $416.30 from John Lackner on a promissory note dated Feb. 2, 1920. The complaint says the note was made out by Lackner at Milton and made payable to Lipke Bros. Holbrook endorsing it as an accommodation for Lackner.

Placed for Not Stopping—Matt Flinery paid $3.40 to the municipal court clerk when he pleaded guilty before Judge H. L. Maxfield to not stopping at the arterial highway crossing at West Milwaukee and Academy streets. L. B. McGilva convinced the court that he did stop and his case was dismissed.

Pastor Muller Is Home from East, Fully Recovered

Fully recovered from his critical illness with hemorrhaging a month ago, Pastor G. J. Muller of St. Peter's Lutheran church, has returned to his home here and is ready to resume the conduct of regular services beginning the coming Sunday, Palm Sunday. He has been spending the past several weeks at the home of his mother in Lancaster, Pa., and made a short visit in Brooklyn, N. Y., to the church of the Incarnation of which he was pastor before coming to Janesville. During his absence, the pulpit here has been filled by supply pastors. Pastor Muller will resume his regular classes next week.

The Wall Flower

By MARION RUBINCAM

SYNOPSIS OF PRECEDING CHAPTERS.
Tandora Nicholson is so painfully shy that when she meets new people she can think of nothing to say to them, and never knows what to do with her hands or feet. She lives as a poor relation with her Aunt Mary, her uncle and their very popular daughter, Gladys—all of whom tell her frequently that she is hopelessly stupid and queer. She has only one friend, Merton, who likes her, whom she loves devotedly. When Gladys, who has everything, suddenly marries Merton, Pan fancies herself heartbroken.

She goes to New York to live with Gloria Gates, a brilliant erratic woman who takes care of her. Pan begins to find herself. She finds the perfect cure for her shyness, George, who goes with them that summer to Europe. In London, Gloria, now a widow, marries Sautley Collins, leaving Pan in charge of her. George, who has been in love with Pan all the time, asks her to marry him and return to New York, taking along little Frankie.

THE NEW PAN.

Chapter 103.
George had said, when they first returned to the studio: "I suppose we'll move, we won't have enough room here."

At which Pan turned round, surprised eyes on him.

"Room? There's oceans of it! After months in hotel suites—"

"This seems huge, does it? Well, wait and see, your ideas will soon expand."

And when Pan asked him what he based that assumption upon, he could only answer that in his friend's experiences, "they always did."

"Most women want a huge place to entertain and more clothes than they can wear and all the fuss and feathers of life. And the more money they have, the bigger splash they like to make with it."

"I don't. If what you say is true, I'm not like most women," Pan answered with an impudent little smile at him.

"Well, see!" George laughed. "You're awfully feminine, you know. Pan, and you did so nicely over the defeat on our wedding plans."

That was because I always wanted a white satin gown with tiny pearls and orange blossoms, didn't I? I couldn't have worn it if we hadn't had a regular wedding. But that doesn't prove I'm like most women. You're much nicer and slier, the man said, his teasing, half tender.

"Where are you off to now? Aren't you going to come and kiss me good-bye first?"

"I'm going to take Frankie to a school near here, where Gloria always intended to have him go," Pan told him. "Then I'm going to Gloria's office to see if there's anything I can handle for her, and I'll be home to see that you have a nice luncheon."

George, seated high up on his painter's stool, detained her gently until a small hoarse voice from the doorway asked:

"Pan, aren't you ever coming?"

And Pan laughed and slipped away. George heard them chattering together down the hall, and then the door closed and he was left alone again in the great studio with its perfect correct butter and his severely correct maid, just as he had been in his bachelor days. The perfect quiet of the place, once soothed to him and an inducement to work, rather worried him now. He liked to hear his wife's quick little footsteps as she went back and forth on the stairs, his little child's tiny feet on the floor, and the sound of his own hand tapping the keys of the typewriter.

Still, he couldn't work though he had several things to do, so he began cleaning brushes and palettes and sorting out bent and discolored tubes of colors and examining frames and canvases, and so kept himself busily busy until the 1 o'clock luncheon.

As for Pan, she trotted down Madison Avenue to a boy's school and entered Frankie, feeling very grown up and motherly as she inquired about prices and courses of lessons, hours of recitation and such things, and decided he should have French, at once, though it was an "extra," because languages were so important and should be taught young.

Then, with the excited Frankie still walking beside her, she went to Gloria's office, closed for the summer while she was away, and for one week, she had to come once a week, sort the mail and forward the important letters, but that irresponsible young lady had found herself another position long since, and had decided to "chuck" this once-a-week errand which meant only a little extra money. So mail was lying in a tray on the floor inside the door.

Pan thought it might be fun to spend two hours a day in the office sorting and answering and getting things straight for Gloria. "This plan she carried out faithfully. 'I'll drop Frankie off at school and go on down there,' she told George. 'Then I'm in the shopping center, and I'll do my errands. I'll then then and collect Frankie again on my way home for lunch.' Which excellent plan kept her occupied all morning. George thought it a good idea, for Pan had nothing to do otherwise.

"Interests will come as we settle down here together," he said. "People are drifting back to town, you'll have a certain amount of social duties, you know," he looked at her half doubtfully. She seemed so young to have the responsibilities of house and husband, but she had chosen so clearly in a big city where initiative meant much.

"I don't want you to be bored," he added, thinking that Pan, who was always so happy, would go to when people asked her and stay home when they didn't.

"Bored? When I see you every day?" she asked with a little incredulous laugh.

And she did keep herself happy and busy during the long hours when George shut himself up to work. His was changed. She was becoming a new sort of person.

TODAY'S RECIPES

Vinegar Dressing. Put in an iron bowl, egg-half cup of butter, one cup brown sugar, salt and cook until puffy. Set off stove and cover with layers of oiled paper. In bowl mix one cup vinegar, one-quarter cup water, one cup flour, one teaspoon vanilla, one teaspoon baking powder, pinch salt, pour in skillet and cook until puffy. In skillet mix one cup vinegar, one-quarter cup water, one cup flour, one teaspoon vanilla, one teaspoon baking powder, pinch salt, pour in skillet and cook until puffy.

Southern Spoon Bread. Put in pan on stove one cup milk, salt, four tablespoons cornmeal moistened with cold water. Cook until thick, add one-half cup of cheese cut finely and two eggs beaten. Stir and set off. Cook until puffy and add and bake in greased pan.

Salad. Chopped celery and small onion, with vinegar, salt and pepper.

MARLE CANDIES

This being the maple sugar season and candies made from the sugar are very desirable, a few recipes will be very desirable to our column.

Maple Fudge. Maple Fudge is a popular candy. This may be made with or without nuts. One pound maple sugar, two-thirds cup corn syrup, one-half cup milk, one tablespoon butter or margarine, one-half cup chopped nuts, one teaspoon vanilla. Mix all together and heat slowly without stirring until a little of the mixture forms a soft ball when dropped in cold water. Remove from fire, let stand until nearly cold. Add fruit, let stand until thick and creamy. Pour at once into a greased pan. Mark into squares.

Maple Pudding. In making puddings and fudges with the sugar it is wise to add a certain proportion of corn syrup. This gives a smoother candy. It is not quite so strong in flavor.

Maple Fondant. Use the following ingredients: One pound maple sugar, two tablespoons corn syrup, one cup water, one teaspoon vanilla. Break the water and the corn syrup, cook, stirring constantly until the sugar is melted. Do not stir again. Wash down the sides of the pan with water. Let stand in exactly the same manner as used when making fondant. Cook to 238 degrees Fahrenheit. Remove from the fire. Let until it reaches 110 degrees. Add vanilla. Beat until it becomes creamy. Add vanilla. Beat until it becomes smooth and free from lumps. This fondant improves when ripened. To do this put it in a jar covered with a damp cloth.

MINUTE MOVIES

HEART AND HOME

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am a young man of 19 and have been going with a girl the same age "steady" for two or three years, until recently, I had a "standing" date with her on Sunday evenings. She called me up one afternoon and said she was sorry, but she could not have a date with me that night. I have asked for a date several times since then, but she always has some excuse.

Do you think that she doesn't care to go with me "any longer"? Other boys have asked her for dates, but she very seldom gives them one. When we meet on the street she speaks in a friendly way. I think the world of this girl and it hurts me to think I will have to give her up.

From appearances I would judge that the girl no longer cares for me, because there is little use devoting yourself to some one who no longer wants your attention. At first you will probably suffer, but I think time will soften your wound and after a while you will find yourself deeply interested in some one else.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: We are twin sisters and love each other dearly. We have always been inseparable, but lately there has been a difficulty between us. We are both in love with the same young man.

This young man often calls at our home, apparently to see both of us. Naturally neither of us will give up the other one. Therefore we are fighting a battle.

are struggling between a sisterly love and a love for a sweetheart.

I please advise us, if possible, what to do, as we are extremely worried over this unusual situation. Our parents do not know about it, so, seem to like him very much.

MOLLY AND POLLY.

Make a promise to each other that you will let time and the young man settle your problem. Suppose or later he will show a preference, or else he will stop coming entirely. If he shows a preference, the disappointed sister should let her sister's love for the other girl take the place of her own. If he stops coming entirely, neither should blame the other. The matter will take its natural course and does not need interference on your part.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: When one receives a birthday card, or greeting from friends or relatives, it is proper to thank them. How should one acknowledge the thoughtfulness of the sender?

It is only courteous to thank the person who sends the card. Either do so when you meet or write a little note of appreciation.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am a girl 16 years old and my class is 15. We are considered good looking. My father does not object to my going out at night if I am home at 9:30 and come home on the car, but my girl friend's father does object to her going out at night, even one night a week. Do you think it is right?

Both of you are young to be out at night even one night a week until 9:30.

ARE YOU TIRED DULL, LANGUID?

DOES your head ache, are you tired when you get up, is it hard to arouse enough ambition to do even the smallest tasks?

That's a sign of sluggish, impure blood. That's a warning to get a bottle of Gude's Pepto-Mangan and refresh your blood and build up new strength and energy. For over 30 years Gude's has been the favorite tonic and blood purifier of many thousands of people. Your druggist has it, in both liquid and tablet form.

Beet Cough Mixture Is Home Made

Acts With Speed—Tosses the Phlegm—Stops the Irritation and Coughing Cesses.

Fine for Chest Colds Too and Is Cheaply Made at Home

When you can make in two minutes a powerful coughing remedy that acts directly on the membrane and overcomes the irritation and even hard chest colds disappear, why trifling with things that will probably disappoint?

Hawking and sneezing and also soreness of the throat indicate colds and you will feel fine in almost no time.

Just get one ounce of Parmit (double strength) add to it a little sugar and enough hot water to make a half pint and you've got your cough remedy better than you can buy ready mixed.

Its soothing, healing action on the membrane is the reason so many people use it for Catarrh and acute nasal colds.

Clean Up Poison Soaked Kidneys Advises Dr. Carey
Thousands Die Every Year Because They Allow Poisonous Deposits to Accumulate in Kidneys.

Don't flush your kidneys with harsh makeshifts, says Dr. Carey; they are too frail and delicately constructed to treat them rough.

For 40 years I have been using Mr. Prescription No. 777 for kidney and bladder diseases and now that I have retired from active practice I have made arrangements with leading druggists to dispense this wonderful prescription at a moderate price.

Beware of kidney disease—thousands die every year who ought to be enjoying the blessings of life and health.

BEAUTY CHATS by Edna Forbes Kent

FEEDING THE ELBOWS
Elbows continue to be in fashion. Lina L. Paris designers continue to make extremely short sleeves as well as extremely long ones. Therefore the woman with ugly elbows can hide them and still dress as smartly as she chooses. But who wants to possess an ugly feature even though it can be hidden?

A sure, safe way to end CORNS
In one minute you can end the pain of corns with Dr. Scholl's Zino-pads. They remove the cause—friction—pressure, and just the irritation. Thus you avoid infection from cutting your corns or using corrosive acids. Faint, antiseptic water-proof. Sizes for corns, calluses, bunions. Get box today at your druggist's or shoe dealer.

We have talked often about elbow treatment in this space, and I am sorry to say that I have no brilliant new suggestion to offer. Experience has shown me that there are only two good ways of making ugly elbows disappear.

First, the elbow should be shaved. Second, the elbow should be treated with a good soap, hot water, and a moderately stiff bristled nail or hand brush. This cleanses the skin and stimulates it and opens the pores ready to receive the nourishing oil.

Everybody admires a good complexion

The daily use of Resinol Soap for the toilet and bath keeps the skin so clear it cannot help being beautiful. It is unusually cleansing and at the same time so pure and mild it will not irritate the most sensitive skins.

When aided by Resinol Ointment, it seldom fails to remove all blemishes, freckles and other facial blemishes. Your dealer sells Resinol Soap and Ointment. Ask for them.

Resinol
To Give an overtaxed and tired system a night of refreshing rest and a bright tomorrow is the work of Resinol. Resinol cleanses the body functions regular, improves appetite, relieves constipation. Used for over 40 years.

GRAIN

Chicago Review.—Wheat averaged a little lower in price Friday during the early dealings. The market was rather quiet, but the Liverpool quotations were tending downward. On the other hand, there was no decided movement in the indications of moist weather in the domestic winter wheat. The market was quiet, but the Liverpool quotations were tending downward. FARM BUREAU MEET IN MADISON FRIDAY

Madison.—A state-wide dairy conference was called by the Wisconsin Farm Bureau for Friday to convene at Madison, Friday. The Bureau invited the representatives of the cheese, butter, and other dairy interests. The principal matters to be taken up for consideration are the development of the membership of the Wisconsin Cheese Producers' federation, the Wisconsin Cooperative Creamery association, and the national dairy products sales agency plans which are being submitted by the dairy marketing committee of the American Farm Bureau federation.

COURT ADJOURNS TO MONDAY MORNING

Judge George Gilman returned to his home in Jefferson, Thursday night, after completing two days' work here and left without further work for the week through disposition of several cases scheduled for trial. He will return Monday, to preside when the $5,000 malpractice suit of Mrs. Ida Greenwood vs. Dr. J. H. Gilman and W. J. Allen is called before a jury. The case will be called at 2 p. m.

THE DEATH ROLL

Mrs. Alice McDonald, Whitewater, Wis., died from a stroke Tuesday at 9:45 a. m. She was born June 12, 1862, at Cold Springs, north of Whitewater. Her parents were the late Mr. and Mrs. Robert Campbell. After the death of her husband, Thomas, 23 years ago, she moved to Nebraska and took up a claim. Ten years ago she moved to California and bought an orchard, now owned by her son, Clarence. Her two daughters, Mrs. Frank Hawes and Mrs. Albert Young, went west about two months ago and remained there four weeks. Their mother came back with them about three weeks ago and lived here until her death. Funeral arrangements have not yet been completed, although burial will be in Whitewater. She was a member of the Congregational church.

BLAINE FAX BILL TO FACE ATTACK UNLESS DRASTIC

Continued from Page 1) Governor Blaine won out in his first encounter with the more radical element among the progressives, when all the smoke had cleared away but this was done after he had told the assembly that action on the proposed repeal of the personal property tax would amount to an expression of a lack of confidence in executive.

FOSTER REVOKES GIFT TO WOMAN

Codicil of Will Gives Home to Adopted Son Instead of Mrs. Martin.

A contest of the will of John Foster, recently shown merchant of Beloit, who died early Monday, is a possibility with the filing in the Rock county court late Thursday of a codicil dated March 21, which gives his home at 635 Broad street to his adopted son, Oscar, instead of to Mrs. Alice Martin, wife of a Beloit real estate man and a Christian Science practitioner, who would have received it under the will.

Written with pencil on a piece of note paper, is the codicil stating: "This is my last and solemn request that my executor shall give Oscar Foster, my adopted son, the homestead regardless of any other will I have made. I hereby revoke all other wills regarding the homestead. After paying requests I give everything to him, John Foster." The signature is written in a shaky hand and the codicil is witnessed by Mary A. Buchanan and Leah C. Elliott.

$4,000 to Mrs. Martin.
Under the will, Mr. Foster bequeathed to Mrs. Martin his home together with contents and two fur coats of his late wife, Marcia E. Foster, and $4,000, stating that: "Well knowing the vast amount of good said Mrs. Martin is doing for suffering humanity in the practice of her chosen profession, and well knowing the tremendous effort and work hand the meagre remuneration many of those benefitted give for the good received, like the nine lepers of old who failed to make return and give thanks, I make the above devise and bequest so that she may have greater freedom to continue to advance and broaden in this field of unselfish labor."

Oscar Foster, under the will which was executed Aug. 25, 1922, was to be allowed one year to vacate the premises.

The retired shoe manufacturer was administrator of the estate of Loretta Foster, who kept house for him several years and the final assignment of her estate has not yet been completed. Under the will her estate was left to Mrs. May Houlston, Kansas City, Mo., and Oscar Foster, Oscar Foster came to Janesville and was employed here, after having trouble with his foster father over the estate, but a reconciliation was effected.

Other Bequests Made.
A third interest in the Dearborn farm in Winnebago county is bequeathed to Mary D. Hutchison, Chicago, niece of his deceased wife, and Andrew C. Hutchison, Beloit, and a sixth interest in the same farm to Samuel Foster. The executor of the estate is to hold one-sixth interest in the farm in trust for the issues of Samuel Foster.

May Houlston, and her daughter, Loretta, are each left $3,000 and $1,000 is held in trust for the two other children of the former. Bequests of land in Taylor county, Wis., a 160 acre farm in Polk county, Wis., and the annuity in the estate of Foster's late uncle, John Foster, of Halifax, England, are made to Samuel Foster.

The adopted son, Oscar, gets the residue of the estate.

KIWANIS CLUB IN A GRIDIRON STUNT

A regular Gridiron Club stunt was presented at the Kiwanis club luncheon Thursday in which Ervin Sarchett, acting as a physician, made some wonderful cures and a trial advertisement for malpractice was thrown out of court since all the doctors stood together. The members were in hilarious laughter as the piece was played.

"What qualifications have you as a doctor?" was asked of Irving Clark.

"Well I work in the city hall and that qualifies me for anything," said the doctor.

Oscar Nelson told of his visit to the Kiwanis club at Beloit, Ill., and his trials in hunting up a tailor, however achieving the end sought after a long search on a Sunday.

Many guests were present. The Kiwanis joined the bowling association 100 per cent.

MRS. COLON RICE GRANTED DIVORCE

Husband Ordered to Pay $7,800—Tells of His Great Cruelty.

Whatever she did or did not do was wrong in the eyes of her husband, Colon Rice, and he held her responsible for any calamity that has ever touched their lives. Mrs. Bertha Rice testified in her divorce action heard Thursday in the Rock county circuit court. Judge George Grimm granted her a divorce on grounds of cruel and inhuman treatment.

She was granted the custody of John Colon Rice, infant son, permanently, and that of Carrie Rice, eight-year old child, to June 1, 1923, when the father will have the custody of this child. He is given the custody of Dorothy Rice, 21 months old. Carrie is partially blind and the unusual and long judgment states "Carrie shall be permitted to have her dog."

Property rights are settled under the order granted after a stipulation was entered into by the two parties, with payment by the defendant of $7,800 within 30 days, to his wife, who is given her own personal effects.

Earlier Divorce Action Dropped.

Mrs. Rice started action for divorce Jan. 31, 1922, but it was dismissed five days later upon a reconciliation when Rice promised to be more considerate.

Various instances of his cruel treatment during the past six years were recited by Mrs. Rice on the stand in which he has shown no affection for her but attempted in every conceivable way to hurt and injure her feelings. Six years ago she said he promised never to take her anywhere and he took her to proms, and on many occasions would go alone to places where both were expected to be present together, leaving her to her own resources in getting there.

Was Unclean in Habits.

He was unclean in his personal habits and failed to take baths or change his clothing for long periods of time, she testified, and upon her suggestion that he take a bath on one occasion he became greatly irritated and refused ever after to ride on the same interurban with her, the interurban being used to get to Janesville, coming past the front of the farm.

"He told me once that if it wasn't for the youngsters, he wouldn't have me in the house two days, 'I'd kick you out,' he said."

Practically all the clothing she and the children had had the last few years had been turned in by her brother and sister, she testified, and she told how he had punished the sick child despite the physician's edict that the child must be given the best of care and consideration.

He denied he was the father of their last born child and had told hospital authorities she was mentally deficient, Mrs. Rice claimed. Once she had been badly engaged in "fondling" to the baby when he asked when she was going to take care of some shrubbery and became angry and five days later upon a reconciliation when Rice promised to be more considerate.

Various instances of his cruel treatment during the past six years

Mr. and Mrs. Rice were married at Rockford Nov. 15, 1900 and six children were born, three of whom died.

Miss Janesville Says—
Street cars and some automobiles run with lights on the early part of Thursday morning to avoid confusion in the fog. The lights could be seen, monster like, long before the car took shape.

The Easter bunny will have to wear his goggles, Sunday morning, April 1, when making his annual distribution of colored eggs. If they don't color evenly, and they usually don't, the dyes are so uncertain, you can't tell Buddy that the bunny dropped that egg in a puddle in his haste at delivering.

What do you think of the exclusive couple who refuse to join in the parade two years because they are afraid they might pull a partner, who couldn't dance?

Father Willmann is up to his old tricks. He was seen ambling up South Main street early Wednesday afternoon with a large bunch of pussy willows. Somehow he always manages to find the first buds of the season.

What demon inspiration provokes the games of the various clubs in Janesville? Just the thought provoking contrast between the Locomotive Eight and Forget-Me-Not makes us wonder if these two groups possess powerful action of the first and the shy and unpretentious qualities of the latter.

What do you feel (of course you can't do it when such space divides you) like doing to the fellow who says "Who's this?" when you answer the ring of your telephone?

Here's some agent for the billboards saying that these posters posted up are the nation's art gallery. He ought to see some of them you can find in Janesville. If that is art then we lost a great part of our national exhibit when the wooden Indians in front of the cigar stores were removed.

The Janesville postoffice sounds more like a chicken hatchery than anything else just at present. A local hatchery is sending quantities of little day-old chicks every day and their "cheeps" can be heard all over the office.

The Best Medicine for Women

When Mr. Myers of Winston-Salem, North Carolina, stepped into the drug store and asked his druggist for the best medicine he had in his store for women's ills, is it any wonder he was handed a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound? Mrs. J. E. Myers in writing of it says: "I had been weak, run down and had a pain in my left side for a long time, so I could not do my work. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound helped me in a short time so I was able to do all of my housework, including washing and ironing, and now I feel fine all the time." As Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound holds the record for benefiting 38 women out of every 100 women who take it, it will pay every suffering woman to try it. —Advertisement.

WALWORTH COUNTY

ELKHORN
County Seat News.
Mrs. GRANT HARRINGTON.
Tele. ne 35.

Elkhorn—Mrs. J. F. Jenkins received word of the death of her father, Amos De Van, 83, at Boscobel, March 21. Mrs. Jenkins left Tuesday morning. Jesse and Wilma Jenkins went later to attend the funeral Saturday.

The Milton Harmony band, under the direction of Chief Lookoun, furnished the music for the local meeting Wednesday night. Supper was served. Tommy O'Keefe's side won the attendance contest. The winners are waiting for the date of the "spread" to be set.

The Harry D. Kelly post is considering a county celebration for the Fourth of July. The matter will also be considered by the Kiwanis club at its Monday meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. S. Morowski are ready to occupy the Edgar Davis house, in Helen Heights, which was formerly owned by H. W. Durck.

The women of the La Fayette church are energetic; they will invade Elkhorn Saturday and hold a home baking sale at McGill Bros. store.

N. E. Carter and children, Ben and Virginia, have been confined to the house a week with influenza.

Mrs. Mary Edgerston, 54, sister of Ben Boech, died at Fond du Lac March 21. The body will be brought to Elkhorn Saturday for burial in the Spring Prairie cemetery.

Mrs. Edgerston was married to her husband, B. Edgerston, two grown sons and daughters.

Will Duffy, an Elkhorn boy, who has been the valued agent at Lyons for several years, has been transferred to Elmer, Ill. Elmer Colville, Troy Center, has been appointed temporarily to take Mr. Duffy's place.

Mr. Duffy was taken town clerk and his work is being cared for until election by his deputy, M. McCann.

The essays for the national W. C. T. U. contests for high schools have come to the local schools. The English teachers are much gratified that there were 118 pupils who finished the themes either on the subject "Why There Should be No Wine and Beer Amendment to the Volstead Act," or "The Cost of Cigarettes—Financial, Physical, Mental, Moral and Social." There would have been more contestants had there not been so much illness.

Personal

Mrs. George Wilkinson and small daughter have returned from a five weeks' visit at Watoma, Ia.

W. A. West left Wednesday on a business trip to Omaha.

Mrs. Eleanor Ross, Walters returned to Milwaukee Tuesday, having nursed her little niece, Betty Alene Ross, through her illness.

Source of Inspiration
When Bernard Shaw, Chaucer, Kipling or Robert Browning are spoken of in lecture, social converse or literature we all want to feel conversant enough with them to carry on the suggested line of thought or conversation.

Do we all know that Browning was a profound Bible student? Do we all realize that in his "Ring and the Book" there are five hundred Biblical phrases? Do we all consider that the writings of almost every author of English prose or poetry are permeated with the Bible, and many complete with full quotations? How are we to acquire the familiarity which culture demands and is really necessary for intelligent comprehension if we do not know the sources of such references?

Bible reading helps us in every walk of life, both in material and spiritual development.

The easiest way to procure a Bible for use in lecture, social converse or literature is making. See Bible coupon printed in another column for the very favorable terms.

CITY MARKS TIME ON BANKS' TAXES

No 50-50 Settlement Is Proposed Here with National Banks.

While several Wisconsin cities are settling with national banks on a 50-50 basis for 1921 and 1922 taxes, City Attorney Roger G. Cunningham is marking time so far as Janesville is concerned and no efforts are being made to obtain such a settlement here. Both national banks of Janesville paid their 1921 taxes, amounting to about $7,000, under protest, and did not make settlement at all for their 1922 charges, taking advantage of a federal supreme court ruling that national banks are not liable to city taxation.

City Attorney Cunningham is handling the local situation on the assumption that a compromise on taxes between a municipality and a corporation or individual is illegal.

"Either the taxes were levied and collected justly or unjustly," he declared. "There is no middle ground of half-right and half-wrong on such a question. Taxes already collected should be retained by the cities, despite the fact they were paid under protest. We are awaiting in Janesville an interpretation of congress' stand on taxes already paid, before taking any further action. Monroe and other cities have set-led with the banks for 1921 and 1922 taxes on a 50-50 basis, as was recommended in a letter sent out by the tax commission. In Janesville both national banks have filed separate suits for recovery of taxes paid under protest in 1921, but trial of the cases is being held up pending definite word from Washington. It is probable no effort will be made to collect 1922 taxes from either bank. The Lower City bank was the only state bank that paid its 1922 taxes under protest.
